CONCISE EXPLANATION AND ANALYSIS OF THE PRODUCT AND ITS COMPLIANCE WITH APPLICABLE PROVISIONS OF THE ACT, INCLUDING CORE PRINCIPLES AND THE COMMISSION'S REGULATIONS THEREUNDER

Pursuant to Commission Rule 40.2(a)(3)(v), the following is a concise explanation and analysis of the product and its compliance with the Act, including the relevant Core Principles (discussed in Appendix D), and the Commission's regulations thereunder.

I. Introduction

The “Will <person> win a Grand Slam in <year>?” Contract is a contract relating to Sports.

Further information about the Contract, including an analysis of its risk mitigation and price basing utility, as well as additional considerations related to the Contract, is included in Confidential Appendices B, C, and D.

Pursuant to Section 5c(c) of the Act and CFTC Regulations 40.2(a), the Exchange hereby certifies that the listing of the Contract complies with the Act and Commission regulations under the Act.

General Contract Terms and Conditions: The Contract operates similar to other event contracts that the Exchange lists for trading. The minimum price fluctuation is $0.01 (one cent). Price bands will apply so that Contracts may only be listed at values of at least $0.01 and at most $0.99. Further, the Contract is sized with a one-dollar notional value and has a minimum price fluctuation of $0.01 to enable Members to match the size of the contracts purchased to their economic risks. As outlined in Rule 5.12 of the Rulebook, trading shall be available at all times outside of any maintenance windows, which will be announced in advance by the Exchange. Members will be charged fees in accordance with Rule 3.6 of the Rulebook. Fees, if they are charged, are charged in such amounts as may be revised from time to time to be reflected on the Exchange’s Website. A new Source Agency can be added via a Part 40 amendment. All instructions on how to access the Underlying are non-binding and are provided for convenience only and are not part of the binding Terms and Conditions of the Contract. They may be clarified at any time. Furthermore, the Contract's payout structure is characterized by the payment of an absolute amount to the holder of one side of the option and no payment to the counterparty. During the time that trading on the Contract is open, Members are able to adjust their positions and trade freely. The Expiration Value and Market Outcome are determined at or after Market Close. The market is then settled by the Exchange, and the long position holders and short position holders are paid according to the Market Outcome. In this case, "long position holders" refers to Members who purchased the "Yes" side of the Contract and "short position holders" refers to Members who purchased the "No" side of the Contract. If the Market Outcome is "Yes," meaning that an event occurs that is encompassed within the Payout Criterion, then the long position holders are paid an absolute amount proportional to the size of their position and the short position holders receive no payment. If the Market Outcome is "No," then the short position holders are paid an absolute amount proportional to the size of their position and the long position holders receive no payment. Specification of the circumstances that would trigger a Market Outcome of "Yes" are included below in the section titled "Payout Criterion" in Appendix A.

CERTIFICATIONS PURSUANT TO SECTION 5c OF THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE
ACT, 7 U.S.C. § 7A-2 AND COMMODITY FUTURES TRADING COMMISSION RULE
40.2, 17 C.F.R. § 40.2

Based on the above analysis, the Exchange certifies that:

- ☐ The Contract complies with the Act and Commission regulations thereunder.

APPENDIX A – CONTRACT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Official Product Name: “Will <person> win a Grand Slam in <year>?”

Rulebook: GRANDSLAMWIN

GRANDSLAMWIN

Scope: These rules shall apply to this contract.

Underlying: The Underlying for this Contract is the list of winners of Grand Slam tennis tournaments in <year>. Grand Slam singles tournaments are, as of self-certification, the Australian Open, French Open (Roland Garros), Wimbledon Championships, and US Open. Revisions to the Underlying made after Expiration will not be accounted for in determining the Expiration Value.

Instructions: Grand Slam results can be found at the official websites of each tournament: <https://ausopen.com>, <https://www.rolandgarros.com>, <https://www.wimbledon.com>, and <https://www.usopen.org>. These instructions on how to access the Underlying are provided for convenience only and are not part of the binding Terms and Conditions of the Contract. They may be clarified at any time.

Source Agency: The Source Agencies are the official tournament organizers (e.g. Tennis Australia for Australian Open, Fédération Française de Tennis for French Open, All England Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club for Wimbledon, United States Tennis Association for US Open), the Association of Tennis Professionals (ATP), the Women's Tennis Association (WTA), ESPN, BBC Sport, The New York Times, the Associated Press, Bloomberg News, Reuters, Axios, Politico, Semafor, The Information, The Washington Post, The Wall Street Journal, ABC, CBS, CNN, Fox News, MSNBC, and NBC.

Type: The type of Contract is an Event Contract.

Issuance: The Contract is based on the outcome of a recurrent data release, which is issued on a yearly basis. Thus, Contract iterations will be issued on a recurring basis, and future Contract iterations will generally correspond to the next year.

<type>: <type> refers to a type of tennis play, e.g. men's, women's, or men's doubles.

<person>: <person> refers to an individual tennis player, group of players, or category of players specified by the Exchange. May include:

- Multiple players using OR logic (e.g., "Federer or Nadal")
- "No person" (in cases where no Grand Slam might be completed)
- "Any person" or "Anyone"

<year>: <year> refers to a calendar year specified by the Exchange. The Exchange may list iterations of the Contract corresponding to variations of <year>.

Payout Criterion: The Payout Criterion for the Contract encompasses the Expiration Values that <person> has won at least one <type> Grand Slam singles tournament in <year>. A player "wins" a Grand Slam when they are officially declared the <type> champion of that tournament by completing and winning the final match, or when their opponent in the final withdraws, retires, is defaulted, or is disqualified, resulting in the player being declared champion.

For the purpose of this Contract:

- A player must be officially declared the tournament champion by the tournament organizer or Source Agency
- If a final match begins but is not completed due to retirement, withdrawal, default, or disqualification of either player, the player who is declared the winner receives credit for winning the Grand Slam
- If a final match never begins due to a walkover (opponent withdraws before any play), the eventual awarded champion is still credited with winning the Grand Slam
- Exhibition Grand Slams, invitational events, or tournaments not recognized by the ATP or WTA as official Grand Slams do not count
- If a player is later stripped of a title after Expiration, this does not affect the Contract resolution
